

ATTEND PACIFIC COLLEGE NEXT YEAR

THE CRESCENT

VOLUME XXVII

NEWBERG, OREGON, SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 1916

NUMBER 13

Y. W. CONFERENCE IS HELD AT P. U.

Pacific College Delegates Bring Enthusiastic Reports of Meetings of Cabinets.

On April 7, nine girls, two of the lady teachers and seven students left Newberg, four by auto and five by rail for Pacific University, where the cabinet conference was held. The only exciting thing which happened to those in the car was the search for a few chocolates which had been permiscuously placed in the valise and refused to be found until the car was stopped.

The first meeting of the conference was the reception Friday evening, held in the college chapel. Addresses of welcome were given by Miss Frances Farham, dean of women, and Miss Elcy Walker, the outgoing president of the Pacific University association. Reports were given by the different associations of the work done during the past year. The remainder of the evening was spent in getting acquainted. Ice cream and cake were daintily served.

The Saturday morning session opened with devotional time, led by Mildred Benson. Miss Ethel Scribner, secretary at the University, had charge of the Bible period.

Mrs. Lina B. James of Portland, gave the association address, giving a brief history of the W. Y. C. A. as a world movement.

Then followed the technical councils, when groups of girls from the different colleges, together with their leaders, met in Herrick Hall and talked over their problems and ways to solve them. Then the different groups came together in the parlors and reports were given from each group, so all received benefit from all the group meetings.

At 10 o'clock the conference went in a body to the basement of the high school where the banquet was served under a can-

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION CONSIDERING COUNCIL

Plan of Committee Submitted and Accepted—Final Vote Next Week.

Mr. Meade Elliott gave the final report of the committee on an athletic council for the Athletic Association in a meeting of the association on April 10. This report was accepted and, upon a motion by Mr. Elliott, it was decided to post the new plan for a week before the final vote.

The new system of student management is planned to meet a long-felt need for an organization of mature judgment, which shall have power to transact business quickly and judiciously. This council will also afford a means of communication between the students and the faculty. This last was the first purpose of the committee.

According to the report of the committee, the council will be composed of five members, one from the faculty, three from the two upper college classes and one from the sophomore class. This body shall have the management of all business of the Athletic Association and complete supervision of the work of athletic managers. As a check upon the council, the Athletic Association has the power of recall upon the members of the council.

With this council in operation the business of the athletic side of college life will be in the hands of a few of the upper classmen, and much of the mismanagement due to young and experienced men should be done away with. The faculty will be given a voice in student affairs, which will make a decision of the council final and give it official backing.

Clarence M. Brown, '07, who is now a successful lawyer at New Castle, Indiana, was recently nominated for district attorney of Henry county, in that state. His nomination on the republican ticket practically assures his election.

THE BASE BALL TEAM MAKE FAST PROGRES

Coach Knickabocker's Ball Tossers Are Prepared to Meet McMinnville.

Base ball practice has been progressing rapidly during the past two weeks under the watchful eye of Captain Replogle and Coach Knickabocker. Both veterans and new recruits have worked the stiffness out of their arms and have been gaining the mystic knack of "scooping in the hot ones." Two practice games have been played with the high school and a marked improvement has been seen.

Although the line-up for the first game has not been definitely decided, the battery will probably be Gulley and Replogle, with Guyer as sub-pitcher. The infield men will be taken from Hinshaw, Haworth, Colcord, P. Elliott and Harrington, while the outfield will be chosen from Pearson, Newhouse, Colcord and M. Elliott.

The amount of "pep" and confidence exhibited by these men gives us to believe that the Quakers will have a winning team, and that they will not lose the title of "Fighting Quakers."

MEN'S GLEE CLUB TO GIVE CONCERT

After long weeks, yes, even months, of faithful practice and diligent rehearsal, the Men's Glee Club has announced its intention of raising its voice, as musically as possible, at a concert April 21. We are glad indeed to be able to promise our readers a rare treat if they will but print this date on their mental calendars and come prepared to be "moved by a concord of sweet sounds." Director Hull says they really surpass his fairest hopes, when they pay close attention and do exactly as he tells them to do. The program is to include, beside chorus work, solos and quartets, a violin solo by Mr. Edwards and readings by Prof. Hawkins.

PRESIDENT IS HOME AT LAST

Friday Is Gala Day in His Honor—Visiting Day at the College.

The eleven o'clock train Sunday morning, April 9, brought President and Mrs. Pennington back to Newberg, after an absence of nearly six months. They visited various Eastern states and were very successful in their efforts in behalf of the college.

Friday, April 14, has been designated as visiting day. Members of the visiting committee are expected from different parts of the Yearly Meeting, and it is hoped that Newberg people will also take this opportunity to get better acquainted with the students and the faculty, and with the college as a whole.

A banquet in honor of President and Mrs. Pennington will be served Friday evening at the dormitory, to the college board, faculty and the members of the visiting committee.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION TO HAVE NEW OFFICER

At a recent meeting of the Athletic Association it was decided that the association should keep a record of all athletic contests engaged in by the college. In the past no record has been kept of those who won or lost, and it has been difficult to settle questions of the past from memory. For this purpose a record book was ordered bought and a man elected for the position of high lord keeper of the records. This office was conferred upon the president of the freshman class and ex-basket ball captain, Harold Hinshaw.

Professor Lewis spoke in chapel April 4 on the subject of "Christian Hypnotism." The influence which we have over others is not exerted alone in words and deeds; it is even more largely what we are that determines how our lives effect those about us.

Wouldn't it be a good idea if every student in school would adopt as a motto for the next five or six months "Bring One"--the indefinite "one" meaning one new student for next year? Think what it would mean if all of us would do that. What do you say? Let's do!

We want to take this opportunity to express our appreciation of the fact that the Crescent box, instead of being a mere dust-catcher, is coming to have a real meaning to some of the students. You have no idea of the thrill that runs over the editors when they shake the little receptacle and hear an answering rattle for altho' they occasionally find hair pins, gum wrappers, etc., they have also discovered some rare literary gems in its' shadowy depths. Now, don't anyone take this to mean that it is often crammed-jammed full and would not have room for any offering you may have to make. Write it down and put it in!

Speakers in chapel often congratulate us on being students in a small Christian denomination school, yet how many of us really stop and think what it means? We cannot realize what sacrifices Pacific represents to some of its loyal friends and supporters: but we can, in some measure, try to appreciate their efforts and show that appreciation by upholding not only our college, but the church to which it owes its existence. P. C. is essentially an institution of the church; the church is doing its very best for us; shall we fail to do our very best for the church? Then, too, are we as individuals doing our full duty if we fail to take our parts in the work of our church? Let us not allow the multitude of things which claim our attention crowd out our responsibility in this.

CHAPEL NOTES

April 6 Prof. Weesner talked on the subject of "Christian Life and the Work of the Christian Church." The school maintained by a church expects its students to take their place in the work of their church. A church has a right to expect more service, better service and a greater interest than the student had before attending school.

President Pennington spoke on April 11 on "The Progress of the Institution." During the past six years entrance requirements have been raised, buildings, equipment and faculty have been added to. The college is on a better financial basis than ever before and standardization will only be a matter of a short time. But it is none of these that really make the school; the student body alone has the power to make or break Pacific.

Y. W. C. A.

On Wednesday, April 5, Mildred Benson led us in our praise and testimony meeting. Everyone had thanksgiving in her heart and on her lips. At the close we had a spontaneous service of prayer for Miss Lewis, that God would be her help during her sickness and speed her recovery.

The following week, April 12, the leader engaged for the meeting was unable to fill her appointment, although she will be kind enough to come another time. But the period was nevertheless very profitably spent. Alta Gumm read the 12th chapter of Romans, and each girl told how some part of it had become real to her. We believe this chapter to be a very familiar one to the Y. W. members, and certainly it is a good chapter with which to be familiar.

ALUMNI NOTES

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Wright, '10 and '08, will be glad to learn that they are expecting to return to Oregon early this spring. Harvey is now principal of the high school at Fountain City, Indiana.

Walter B. Hadley, '01, and a graduate of the Forestry School of Yale University, was recently appointed chairman of the tree commission at Redlands, Calif.

H. S. Britt, '97, erecting engineer for the Allison-Chambers Company, of Milwaukee, Wis., has recently been installing plants in Washington and British Columbia.

AGORETON

The Agoreton held its regular meeting in Canyon Hall on Tuesday, April 11. An interesting program was given including some "springy," spring quotations given in answer to the roll call. During a short business session an invitation from the Trefian Society for the Agoreton to visit it at its meeting on April 26, was read and unanimously accepted.

The next meeting of the Agoreton will be held on April 25.

JUST IMAGINE!

Imagine "Ruthie" without "Rep,"
"Appie" with a bit more "pep,"
Lorena playing basket ball,
Emmett only three feet tall;
Just imagine.

Imagine Zoe with naught to say,
Henry with no bills to pay;
Cecil without his little snigger,
Irene just a wee bit bigger;
Just imagine.

Imagine Pauline cutting classes,
Meade without his bone-rimmed glasses;
Jonesie getting home at ten,
That "Plute" 'ill never fuss again;
Just imagine.

Imagine Robert with no hair,
Helen with Paris gown to wear;
Mildred whistling in the hall,
That Ethel cannot smile at all;
Just imagine.

Imagine Mary with lots of cash,
Dula trying to make a "mash,"
Ross as awful lean and lankey,
Professor Lewis awful cranky;
Just imagine.

Imagine Frankie as a farmer,
"Beth," a wonderful snake charmer;
"Marjey" as a famous writer,
Willard champion prize fighter;
Just imagine;
Wouldn't it be funny?

LARGE CROWD WITNESSED THE "DISTRICT SCHOOL"

Under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary, the "District School" was put on to a full house in Wood-Mar Hall Friday evening, March 31. The ladies took in about $75 at the door.

If there were any present who had forgotten the days of childhood and youth, the boyish pranks and blushing girls, the "teacher's pet," the "readin' and writin' and 'rithmetic" and the "tune of the hickory stick," their memory was surely refreshed, for they were all artistically shown by the local artists who appeared. And if they went away without a good hearty laugh they certainly had a bad case of "the dumps," for there were opportunities for enough laughs to cure "a seven-year grouch."

From the time the worthy school master, Ezekiel Simpkins (alias Sam Timberlake) appeared in the "school room" until the closing song of "the last day of school" was given there was not a dull moment. The "forenoon" was devoted to class recitations and oral examinations. Some startling information was disclosed, such as the fact that Keeney and his bull dog and Bill Chambers are the three greatest men of history, and that Prof. Taggart sends a "daily" to Indiana. In the "afternoon" the closing exercises of school were given and diplomas presented to three graduates. There were well prepared compositions on the subjects "The Cow" and "Animals;" also some recitations by members of the school gifted in elocution and remarks by Deacon Tidd and Jerusha Quackenbush, members of the "skule" board, otherwise known as Milo Elliott and Miss Jossie Britt.

The most exciting scene was when a "small boy" turned a mouse loose in the front of the room; and the most touching scene was when the teacher spared not the rod on the person of one, Ben Butler (alias Ralph Butt).

Members of the alumni in the cast were Miss Britt, '99, and Cecil J. Hoskins, '07.

"Q" MEN MEET, AND ORGANIZE

On Monday the 3rd of April all the men in school, holding athletic "Qs" were called to meet, and it was decided to form a club, for the purpose of stimulating interest in athletics. Harold E. Hinshaw, Clarence A. Jones and Robert H. Dann were appointed to draw up a constitution. At a meeting on Wednesday the 5th the committee reported and the constitution was adopted.

There are eight men in school now holding "Qs" and they are Delbert Replogle, Clarence Jones, Emmett Gulley, Ross Miles, Lloyd Edwards, Harold Hinshaw, Frank Colcord and Robert Dann.

With the adoption of the constitution it became necessary to elect officers, Emmett Gulley was elected president for the year, Lloyd Edwards, vice-president; Harold Hinshaw, secretary; Frank Colcord, treasurer; Ross Miles, Sergeant-at-arms, and Robert H. Dann as special reporter to the Crescent.

At this meeting it was moved that the club have some form of a banquet, and a committee was appointed to look into that matter, and act soon.

CROWD OF QUAKERS INVADES MAC

On the night of April 2 a crowd of merry Quakers invaded the city of McMinnville for perfectly peaceable purposes. Claude Lewis, '12, thinking that they needed a change in air picked them up on the street in Newberg and took them for a ride in the new family car. The fellows who were piled in and on the car serenaded the people along the roadside with a variety of beautiful songs. In McMinnville they invaded the soft drink establishment and all ordered "McMinnville College girls" which, they said, tasted very good. Then, after purchasing a supply of "eats" the bunch sang a few Quaker songs to the bewildered Macites and left for home. Those fellows enjoying Mr. Lewis' car were Jones '16, Replogle '16, Edwards '18, Keeney '18, Hinshaw '19, Colcord '20, and Lewis '12.

LOCALS

Miss Mabel Landreth was a visitor at school Monday, the 3d. Come again when you can stay longer.

At a student body meeting held Monday, April 3, it was decided that the representatives of Pacific should receive gold pins for efforts in the line of oratory and debate.

Calude Pearson has received an announcement of the Greanleaf Academy graduation. They are certainly nice and well selected.

Dale Butt, P. A. '15, is home from U. of O. spending spring vacation week. He and a classmate, M. Maurice, brought the fraternity mascot, "Don," with them.

If the man who took Mrs. Cock's clock from the dormitory kitchen, will return it immediately, his name will not be divulged.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Newberg high school is working on a new annual, which they intend putting out some time during the month of April. The best talent in school has been put in service, and this year's "Chehalem" promises to be a great success.

The Pyerians have elected officers for the new semester as follows: Ruth Meyer, president; Alberta Langton, vice-president; Pauline Robertson, secretary; Leila Deidricks, sargeant-at-arms. The girls received and accepted invitations from the Phi Lambda Segma boys for a reception given March 30.

The Phi Lambda Segma have initiated five new members, which brings the enrollment up to twenty-six. They have of late been taking an active interest in parliamentary law. Great improvement has been shown. They entertained the Pyerians at a reception March 30.

TREFIAN

The Trefians met in the dormitory parlors for their meeting of April 12. The program opened with a Parliamentary drill conducted by Louise Hodgkin. The pantomime by Miss Sutton and Mary Pennington was no less interesting.

Harriet Hodgkin gave a reading from James Whitcombe Riley, "Her Light Guitar." In conclusion Esther Terrell and Christine Hollingsworth sang a duet, "In the Gloaming." Marjorie Gregory and Elsie Reed acted as critics for the meeting.

THE "FUSSING" RECORD BROKEN

On Saturday night (or Sunday morning), April 1, 1916, the dormitory fussing record was broken by one Ross C. Miles. This night hawk arrived at his place of abode at 1:04 a. m. by the official time of H. F. Taggart, timekeeper.

Mr. C. A. Jones recently informed us of a new record for the year which he himself holds. He claims to have "fussed" 21 times in 19 consecutive days. Can you beat it?

Y. W. CONFERENCE AT P. U.

copy of peach blossoms and pink lights. Miss Hopkins acted as toastmistress and toasts were given boosting for Seabeck. The banquet broke up with songs from each delegation for Seabeck and even the leaders forgot their dignity.

At 3:00 Saturday afternoon the conference convened in Methodist church to listen to short addresses by Mrs. Neal R. Crouse of Portland, Miss Coe, and Prof. Fred G. Boughton, of McMinnville college.

Saturday night the address was given by Pres. C. J. Bushnell, of P. U. His subject was "Christians and Preparedness." After this the girls went to Herick Hall for delegation meetings, and a cup of chocolate around the fire-place.

Sunday morning the delegates sat in a body at the First Congregational church, where they listened to a very impressive sermon on "The High Places of Life" by Rev. Holmes.

Sunday afternoon, "Vesper Service" was in charge of Miss Jessie Burton.

46 was total number registered at conference.

FIRE CHIEF SPEAKS TO STUDENTS

The afternoon classes on April 6 ended at 3:30, to allow the students to listen to Fire Chief Stevens, of Portland, who spoke on fire prevention. He is one of the leaders in the fire prevention campaign which has been going on in Portland for the past eighteen months. He recounted the main causes of fire and told us how we could prevent it. He emphasized the need of keeping cool (figuratively speaking) and of having well in mind what one would do in case of a fire. His account of the vicissitudes he encountered in the way of tests which he had to go through to get in the department was very interesting, especially the description of his jump from the third story of a building into a life net.

He spoke at the Commercial Club in the evening.

DEBATE

Seven able contestants tried out for the debate team Friday evening, March 31. After a prolonged session the judges decided that the team should consist of Mr. Edwards and Mr. Replogle with Miss Gumm as alternate.

The date of the debate, which was to have been held here, April 28, will, at Albany's request be changed to May 5 or 12. In case the latter date is chosen, the debate will be held at Albany.
